

Oakland County Alano Club “Big Book”

Like the back of the Big Book, we would like to compile a book of stories from members and meeting attendees about your journey into Alcoholics Anonymous and how you found your Higher Power.

Names will NOT be published nor divulged.

By telling your story, you will be fulfilling:

Step 1 – describing how you knew you were powerless over alcohol

Step 5 – letting others know your wrongs and your defects that led you to drink

Step 12 – carrying the message to other alcoholics and those still suffering

“No matter how far down the scale we have gone,
We will see how our experience can benefit others.”

The book will be self-published and available to AA members for the cost of publishing ($5-7). We also plan to donate a book to newcomers by placing it in their new member packet. This will NOT be at the expense of the Alano Club or the AA members.

Three ways to submit

- e-Mail to Kelly at kellyd@umich.edu
- Copy story to a CD or floppy disk and drop off at the club.
- Submit handwritten story and drop it off at the club.

Submissions due March 31, 2011

Editor reserves right to reduce length of story or edit for inappropriate content.
